

HOWARD

VINEYARD

Our passion is to create memorable celebrations through great Adelaide Hills Wines produced from our vineyards and serve our community with amazing hospitality.

Over the past 25 years our family has built a reputation for growing premium grapes in the Adelaide Hills; one of Australia's most exciting regions. The Adelaide Hills is about more than wine, it's a way of thinking.

We welcome the new and challenge wine traditions with a youthful confidence. The Adelaide Hills is where we chose to make our wine and live our lives.

We have opened our cellars for the first time ever to give you an opportunity to taste our wine history.

Cheers,

Tom Northcott – Winemaker
